POBR

CALIFORNIA PUBLIC SAFETY OFFICERS PROCEDURAL BILL OF RIGHTS ACT

ARE YOUR MANAGERS, SUPERVISORS, AND IA INVESTIGATORS
THOROUGHLY KNOWLEDGEABLE REGARDING POBR?

IS YOUR POBR RESOURCE LIBRARY WRITTEN IN LEGALESE WITH DIFFICULT TO UNDERSTAND INTERPRETATION OF COURT CASES?

Attorney Martin J. Mayer and Retired Police Captain Kevin Johnson have written two books, not for attorneys, but for managers, supervisors and IA investigators. The authors have taken complex court decisions interpreting POBR and condensed them into a scenario based format using non-legal terms.

Investigator's Guide to the California Public Safety Officers Bill of Rights Act is a comprehensive review of POBR and is designed for managers and IA investigators.

Supervisor's Guide to the California Public Safety Officers Bill of Rights Act addresses only the POBR sections most applicable to front-line supervisors.

AUTHORS:

Mr. Mayer is a name partner with the law firm of Jones & Mayer. He is a leading authority on POBR and FBOR and is lead counsel to several law enforcement organizations.

Mr. Johnson commanded the Internal Affairs Division for the Sacramento Police Department.
